Fifty six years ago today a tornado hit our home and Lakeview High School in San Angelo, Texas at about 2:11 PM. I had the most wonderful peace in my soul even though I did not know if my parents were living or gone to Glory. Later I learned the tornado had blown my mother across the alley landing at the corner of a neighbor's house driving a four foot piece of wood about three feet above her head into the corner of that house. She had read Psalm 91:2 on a scripture calendar above my desk before the tornado lifted her and she went through the air; "carried gently like a feather," as she later described her flight. Our Lord wonderfully keeps His word and she only had a couple of bruises.

My walk home after the tornado was amazing as I saw straw sticking through telephone poles, a store with the wall gone yet shelves against the inside of the wall with canned goods stacked neatly on the shelves, houses looking like piles of toothpicks and the only way I could recognize where I was as I walked home was by counting the intersections.

When I reached where our house had stood, I walked to the corner and looked at only the foundation tile with even the plumbing having been torn out of the ground. Job 1:21b came to mind "the LORD gave, and the LORD hath taken away: blessed be the name of the Lord." The neighbor's pickup was parked in front of our house and the door opened as my mother called "Bob we're over here." I climbed into the pickup and we had a praise service because we were all safe. All earthly possessions were gone but it really did not matter because we had the Lord and each other! Our hearts were filled with Praise!

The Lord recently placed me in contact with Brother James Curtis in Ohio who works on internet web sites for missionaries. He has set up a web site for us and the address is wsprog.com/bg.htm so you can look us up on the web if you have an internet connection.

I will give you a more permanent web address later after we get everything finalized. We are continuing to work on the site presently. This is a ministry Brother Curtis has started to assist us missionaries in setting up web sites to further promote our ministry. We appreciate so much the Lord leading Brother Curtis into this ministry.

Brother JB and Daniel recently sent out packets and mailbags to India, Ethiopia, Malaysia, and Togo. They will be sending out another mailing soon. Remember you can now send new or used Bibles, New Testaments, Sunday school or DBVS materials and Christian literature to them at: Grace Church, Attention: JB & Daniel, 1440 Florida Rd., Durango, CO. 81301. We Praise the Lord for leading them to take over our mailing ministry.
